DEAR PARENT/CAMPER: We, the Sponsors nor Staff nor Campground Owners will be liable for any injuries or accidents or stolen property; the undersigned hereby expressly agrees to protect the above mentioned against compensation and claim for damages on the part of said participant of Camp Surge. There will be no liability for statements made that disagree with your personal convictions. We strive to teach the Word of God and believe in Salvation according to Acts 2:38. We strive not to conflict with Pastoral rulings for their church. Our focus is building up the inner man. Understand, in the event of sickness or injury the Camp Staff has permission to grant medical attention by Physicians, but sponsors will make every effort to notify parent(s) or guardian immediately. You must also acknowledge that this Camper has not been diagnosed with any mental or emotional or learning disabilities that prevent them from functioning independent of one on one supervision. Camp Surge is a religious organization that is staffed with volunteers. We cannot guarantee professional staffing needed to create the safe environment or attention special needs may cause. Camper must agree to abide by all rules governing Camp Surge. Parents, should your child create a serious discipline problem, you must immediately remove them from the Camp at your expense within 24 hours. We will not tolerate disrespect to the staff or peers, illegal drugs, alcoholic beverages, cigarettes, ungodly music or language, leaving the Campgrounds, inappropriate dress which includes no skinny jeans, no leggings, no short skirts with leggings and men can wear shorts well below the knee and not sagging. No nose rings or tongue rings and the men cannot wear earrings, and no revealing attire for anyone. We reserve the right to deny staff or campers admittance based on medical conditions or emotional conditions, if we don't have adequate professional help present.

Both Camper and Parent MUST SIGN for youths under 18 years old. Campers over 18 may sign for themselves.
